Along the Way 2006

Anyone who has driven the roads to Monson High, walked the halls and conversed with the teachers day after day knows that this routine can get old. But, this familiar pattern provides a comfort which we are reluctant to change. There is assurance in the pattern of our days and dependability in the faces of our teachers. In four short years it is over and we must leave the sanctuary of high school to face new and exciting challenges. There are sure to be bumps in the road mixed with periods of smooth sailing; so, we continue with hope and optimism for a bright future, learning from each other Along the Way.

This year Monson High saw the institution of a new "Breathalyzer Protocol," regarding the testing of students before entrance to extra-curricular activities. The policy was introduced midway through first semester as an addition to the Monson High School Student Handbook. It requires a student to submit to a breathalyzer test either random, blanket, or upon suspicion before entrance to an extra-curricular event. The first run was rocky, prompting some protest from students inconvenienced by the confusion. However, by the time of the Spring Prom, an effective system had been worked out which was both clear and convenient, allowing everyone to have a good time.

Freshmen

"Don't step in gum and give hugs not drugs."

Sarah Supernaut

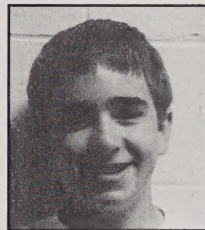

"Winter Carnival, the shopping cart race, and the scooter races were some of my best memories of freshmen year."

Emma Hood

Freshmen

The step up to highschool was exciting yet intimidating for the freshman class. Most students adjusted well to the long block schedule and a larger school. In September, a significant amount of money was raised in the Yankee Candle fundraiser. As the first class to experience the benefits of Big Siblings and the second to benefit from teacher advisors we became more comfortable with our environment. The class of 2009 is looking forward to a bright future at Monson High.

"I will always remember Spanish, we had a good class."

Pat Donovan

"I willl always remember tripping up the stairs."

Adrianne Zannetti

"I will always remember eating Mr. Mik's canole. He called me a meatball and said I owed him $2.50."

SAP

Student Advisory Program

1. Meeting Adjourned
2. Jamming Out.
3. Kyle compares his grades.
4. Report cards. Yeah...I think.
5. Kyle and Chloe, loving the camera.

The Student Advisory Program has provided a smooth transition for the students entering Monson High School. SAP allowed the students to feel more comfortable in their surroundings by the students advisors, in which they can go to if they need support or just someone to talk to. Many of the Freshmen wish they had more interactive activities because it would make the gatherings more interesting, but they still appreciate the ability to work with their advisors.

One activity that the SAP group arranged was the Big Brother Big Sister Dance. This dance proved to be a good way for students to meet with their "big brothers" and "big sisters". The attendance at the dance was high and many people enjoyed themselves.

SAP has made life for Freshmen much easier at Monson High from talking about report cards to getting involved with the school. In years to come SAP will continue to ensure smooth transitions.

1. Dance the night away!
2. Feeling the love at the Big Brother, Big Sister Dance.
3. Moira Sheehan and Missy Brown....did they

- sneak into the Big Brother, Big Sister dance?
4. Good job Abby Cote!
5. Max is excited to be in SAP.

SOPHOMORES

"Being a sophomore is very honorable in high school"
Greg Drake

"As a sophomore, I still have time to figure out future plans and which classes I want to take."
Evan Smith

Sophomores

The sophomore class is an energetic and fun-loving group. One of their greatest accomplishments includes winning the One-Act - Plays two years in a row; a testament to the 10th grade's brilliant actors. Our fundraisers were successful this year. They included a dance, a "guess the candy cane" contest and a tastefully Simple event. These fundraisers made for a great year while raising lots of money for our class. There are only two more years left and we are ready for whatever comes our way.

"You get to know all the upperclassmen better better than in Freshman year."
Emily Anderson

"As a sophomore, there is a lot less drama than last year"
Danielle Parker

"I have more responsibilities but also more rights and freedoms."

FALL FUN

1. Moira Sheehan and Courtney Haley in Salem for their field trip.

2. Say cheese...pizza!

3. Everyone enjoying themselves at the Halloween dance.

4. Check out that sign

5. Holly Tienken and Evan Serio getting into the Halloween spirit.

6. Badminton, anyone?

7. A bewitching photo of Jamie Olson.

8. Robert Matrow and Vicki Lynch sharing a moment at the yearbook party.

9. Brett "Moose" Cadieux at his finest.

11. Sam Via, Brooke Lord, and Katie Hope are shocked to see themselves in the 2005 yearbook.

13. Let the good times roll.

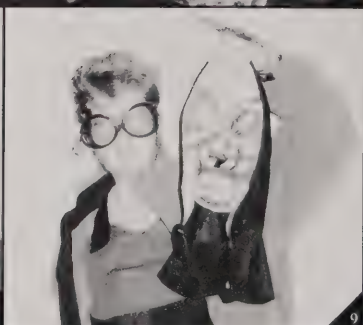

14. Hoot! Hoot!

15. Welcome to Hollywood..

16. We're on our way.

17. Christina and Emily... making an impression

18. A man's best friend.

MHS had a very eventful fall of 2005. From our first ever yearbook signing party to the annual Halloween Ball and a variety of season inspiring field trips. Junior english and history studies were enhanced through a class activity that brought them to Salem. The fundamentals of art class spent a day in the beautiful Berkshires visiting Chesterwood sculpture estate.

JUNIORS

"Throughout high school, I have learned not to make friends with the wrong people so you do not get stuck in drama."
Courtney Kulas

"I have learned that it is easy to be myself in our school; people like me for who I am."
Sam Como

Juniors

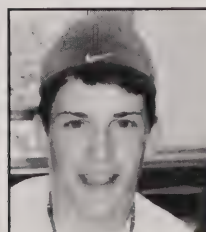

Junior year is a stressful time from SATS to preparing for Senior Year but the grade has made the best out of a stressful situation. As the first underclass to go on a field trip, the Juniors enjoyed the day they spent in Salem. The traditional kiss the pig contest turned everyones heads when Mr.Barth had to kiss a goat instead! Prom was also a major hit and everyone enjoyed themselves. The class is ready for senior year hoping it goes as well as the rest of their high school experience.

PROM

After long hours and diligent work, members of the junior and senior classes donned their evening gowns and tuxedos to celebrate. Hampden Country Club served as the back drop for this years Casino Night theme. Everyone crowded onto the dance floor to dance up a storm in hopes of securing a spot on the Royal Court. While fun was had by all, King and Queen honors were bestowed upon Tim Newton and Courtney Anderson.

SPORTS

SOCCER

The Girls varsity team was steady all season long and then had an exceptional performance in the Western Mass Tournament. The team won a preliminary round game against Smith Academy, a quarter-final round game at Ware, and a semi-final round game vs, Hopkins Academy before bowing out in the finals to Lenox.

Seniors Mary Zurawka and Jordyn Peck pose after a game well played.

Throughout the season, the boys soccer team was able to work hard to achieve major success. They made it to the second round of tournament but lost to Frontier. Although the team is losing six of their valuable players, there is young talent ready to emerge onto the field. Expectations are rising every year as the team exceeds higher and higher in the tournament. The young talent combined with the wise elders will improve the team even further.

CROSS COUNTRY

The Boys Cross Country team had an excellent season. Although the meets were an enjoyable and competitive part of the season, the practices are what really helped them bond as a group. The team has high hopes for next season.

Another great season for the Monson Girls Cross Country team. The group of really came together in their efforts to support one another to achieve team and individual goals. The team lost three seniors whose leadership and enthusiasm will be missed but not forgotten. With many returning undergrads the future of the Monson Girls Cross Country looks bright.

SWIMMING

The 2004-2005 swim season was a memorable experience. The team was in the toughest division, so it was a big change for the team. Although they did not have many wins, individually they met our goals and beat personal records. The four captains Christina Stratton, Sarah Wilson, Danielle Foucher, and Danielle McElhiney, contributed greatly to the team. They are excellent swimmers and will be missed tremendously next swim season.

"Teamwork is the ability to work together towards a common vision. It is the fuel that allows common people to attain uncommon results."

Unknown

This year's team was led by captains Jordyn Peck, Jillian Dreyer, Gina Pegoraro, and Brooke Kortecamp. The team worked hard and improved as the season went along. A 5-3 record in the Bi County West secured a ticket to the Western Massachusetts Division III Basketball tournament. After a valiant effort, the team came up just short. Many personal accomplishments were achieved this season. Jillian Dreyer left her mark shattering the school record with 89 three point baskets. Jordyn Peck, Martine Turgeon, and Jill were selected to the Bi Country All Star Team. With nine players eligible to return next season and a strong JV program, the future looks bright for Monson Girls Basketball.

BASKETBALL

The 2005-2006 boys basketball season was a roller coaster ride. In the beginning, the team struggled and was trying to find a way to save the season. The Mustangs greatly improved by the end, and their four game winning streak proved it. Every member of the team will remember the dramatic game at Palmer that resulted in a great team win for the Mustangs. After struggling for the first part of the season, the game of basketball was fun again because the team was achieving success and compiling wins. Leadership and teamwork on the court were primary factors to the Mustangs' success, and they hope to continue it in which looks to be a bright future for next season.

SOFTBALL

This year the girls softball team has been through a lot. Throughout everything they still pulled it together and made the best out of it, even a 2-1 vicotry over defending Western Mass. BASEBALL

"This was a great group of guys who worked hard and were great to be around." ~Coach K

The 2006 baseball season was full of excitement and quite successful. The team began the season with a disappointing 2-5 record, but they were able to turn things around quickly. With dramatic victories over Hampshire and Southwick, two leading contenders in the league, the Mustangs were back in the playoff picture. By winning seven out of their last nine games, the team qualified for the Western Mass division three tournament. After forcefully eliminating Pathfinder in the preliminary round, the Mustangs moved on to the quarterfinals to play Mt. Everett. This was a hard fought game that, unfortunately, Monson could not win. Even though the team did not advance as fast as they hoped, they were proud of the success that the team had accomplished during their memorable season. The team proved numerous times throughout the season that they would not quit and that they would give 100% effort every game. Strong leadership and dedication propelled the Mustangs baseball team to a successful and memorable season.

TRACK

The Girls Track season was an overall success. There was a little trouble in the beginning due to injury, sickness, and the youth of the team. However, the girls worked well together, had many victories, and met personal recods. Amy Felicetty broke the school record in the pole vault at seven feet and six inches. The fight, determination and spirit of the team was admirable and next year will see even greater improvments.

~Vince Lombardi

The 2006 Boy's track season saw many victories. The team won the Pioneer League Championship with their 7-0 record making it the first ever won in Monson High history. Also, twelve individuals qualified for the Western Mass all winning-medals at the championship meet. Two individuals also qualified for the State Track and Field Championship- Dennis Kane and Spike Nowak. The team's never quit attitude helped break five school records and ended the season with a bang.

CHEERLEADING

The Varsity cheerleaders accomplished so much this winter season. There were a lot of new additions to the team but everyone worked well together and our hardwork paid off. Our Winter Carnival performance was fabulous thanks to Emily Gonçalves' help with the choreography. Fortunately, we didnt have to say any goodbyes this year because there were no seniors on the team. We got to experience traveling to an away game at Palmer, which was really exciting. We had an amazing season and we can't wait to see what next year brings.

Winter Carnival's theme this year was "Free Falling." The dance was a huge success, and the first breathalyzer went well despite the time limitation it put on the dance. The Court consisted of Jordyn Peck, Robert Matrow, Gina Pegararo, Andrew Mesheau, Liz Amerman and Theron Fussell. Danielle Foucher and Josh Mayo were chosen as the King and Queen of 2006. The music was upbeat and kept everyone dancing. Everyone who attended looked great and there was a wide variety of dresses, although black was once again the popular choice this year.

Consistent with Monson tradition, the seniors won the events of winter carnival although the junior class put up a good fight. The annual kiss-the-pig contest had a twist this year, and a goat was used instead. Mr. Barth had to pucker up for his second year in a row. Once again, Winter Carnival was a major hit and helped create a smooth transition into second semester.

Spring 2006, a time seniors thought would never arrive is finally here. For some reason, walking through that set of big double doors at the beginning of Freshman year was both intimidating and overwhelming for many. But quickly, members of the class of 2006 made their mark within the school and among classmates. In a few short years each member of the class has created his or her own identity and distinct personality which will carry them forward through what ever they want to do and where ever they want to go.

I, Michael Allard, leave Matt Ferry my baseball ability and an extra donut and my brother my parking spot and the ability to do well in school.

I, Elizabeth Amerman, leave Sam Via a golf ball and a tee and Brooke, Gianna, Liz, Kayla, and Kyle a table big enough for everyone at Texas.

I, Robert Auld, leave my gong to Danny G.

I, Sarah Beulieau, leave the girls varsity soccer team the ability to keep running and to make it to W. Mass again, and Ryan Shorette a hot date and a promise to pick up my phone.

I, Amanda Blankenship, leave my three favorite freshmen, Lauren D., Becca J., and Adrian Z. three more years of MHS and the ability to keep smiling through the rough times and Kelsey Methe the ability to stand up for herself and to never let certain people bring her down, because she is better than that.

I, Kayla Biggs, leave Emmy late nights with witty banter, evilness jokes told completely for our own benefit, and my unconditional love and gratitude and Stewart Scannell Peaked Mountain in the rain, PDA, and the knowledge, once and for all, that I do in fact love him more.

I, Jessica Bielanski, leave the ability to pass high school to Brittney and Josh, and the energy to come to school on time to Evan Shields.

I, Stephanie Bodurtha, leave Lauren the ability to have fun in Math class and to not get stressed (love ya).

I, Kathleen Bondiewicz, leave Chelsey W. all my sugar donuts and Amy F. my pole.

I, Gennie Brothers, leave my love, memories, and Acceptance CD to my two best friends, Meg and KK and memories at Coyote Rock and the ability to continue living freely to Tim "Tammy" Newton.

I, Jennifer Butler, leave Frankie Muniz to Marky Michael and Saturday morning cartoons and Guns Up shows to Mat W.

I, Elise Caney, leave the ability to laugh at her ridiculous outfits and good luck next semester to Brittney and the strength and courage to keep avoiding the drama and having fun to Amanda.

I, Karen Chalue, leave my parking space to Tony because he is already stealing it, and a hug and a kiss to Mrs. Church.

I, Jamie Chavez, leave Amanda K. the ability to graduate and shop till she drops and Laura V. the ability to party all day.

I, Alison Collette, leave my sisters Steph and Rachel strength, courage, and the best of luck through school, Melissa Matzko and Julie McBride a huge hug and the strength to make it through everything you do, and Mr. Degnan a real guitar.

I, Ryan DeMaio, leave Britt and Josh 25 credits and Ryan the after school special.

I, Sean Donovan, leave my brother, Patrick Donovan, my drive and ambition and the gift of voice and personality to whomever gets the privilege of reading the morning announcements.

I, Jillian Dreyer, leave Brooke, Gianna, Liz, Kayla, and Kyle a limo to visit me at Babson and the best times in high school and Chelsea Carr my Tmacs, my #5, and an awesome basketball season.

I, Rachel Elliott, leave my racecar driving skills to my best friend Leah Fay, the only member of the White Car Club left in the school, and all the love in the world and my amazing food to Tim Newton!

I, Lauren Fograshy, leave Allie E. the strength to finish Senior year and the best of luck on her musical studies and Caitria O. many exciting and fun Cross Country runs, all my best, and a great Senior year.

I, Shaina Fontaine, leave my sarcasm to Sarah King.

I, Monica Fowler, leave Kelsey Methe the ability to get through the next two years successfully.

I, Theron Fussell, leave my anatomy and my physiology to Jamie and Chelsey.

I, Emily Goncalves, leave Heather trips to the gym, because we all know she needs it. (just kidding) and Neil a guide on how to not get kicked out of school.

I, Patrick Goodreau, leave walking alone to class and countless amounts of my clothes to Lauren and 10 credits to Josh Jordan.

I, Brian Goodwin, leave 10 credits to Josh and Neil the ability to be here and my skateboard.

I, Ray Grassetti, leave Terk the ability to annoy others.

I, Lyla Hackett, leave my softball jersey to Keeley and "st" to Jordan and Markie.

I, Tykesha Hart, leave Evan Shields the ability to finish high school and Missy and Kourt a big hug and a punch in the stomach.

I, Charles Hastings, leave Pavel the ability to smooth talk the women and Terk the ability to get money.

I, Dan Hope, leave my love and support to Karin Heim and good luck to the future baseball teams.

I, Trisha Howard, leave my sister Jill the confidence to know that she can overcome any struggle and always come out on top.

I, Katie Hutchinson, leave the lunch table, Sublime, and our ranting sessions to Trisha and leave my English notes to Chelsey W.

I, Kimberly Jusik, leave Kyle, Liz, and Kayla the saddle at Texas and Gia and Brooke the best Senior year.

I, John Jorge, leave Josh hope at one day getting out of here.

I, Jessica, Klisiewicz, leave Garrett Beyor lots of good times at Monson High and the ability to succeed and Mrs. Goodrich lots of laughs and good memories of me, Lindsey, and Kiley (Bermuda Triangle).

I, Brooke Kortekamp, leave Travis Kortekamp the ability to get good grades and Ryan Daly lunch money.

I, Jaimie Kulas, leave my sister, Courtney, my parking spot in the Senior lot, our crazy ability to read each other's minds, a foot rub, my love, and the patience to deal with the never-ending drama at MHS.

I, Jacqueline Lamontagne, leave Sam C. $472.63 for coffee (you owe me!) and all my knowledge and advice to Maggs.

I, Erica Lamountain, leave Zac a chest and Ryan Brown a prom date.

I, Amanda Lawrence, leave Trisha the Asians and our trip to Dean Pond with Marge and Krystal, and Krystal the Halloween parties, chillin' to Sublime, and the ability to open a shop on the beach like you dream!

I, Lindsey Lessard, leave my sister Nikki the focus and determination to do her work and my ability to slide by. Oh, and 10 Taco Bell tacos to conquer. And Mikealope, Garalope, and Kitty Kayla the ability to be hardworking and determined, just like in Multimedia.

I, Laura Maggi, leave Bobby Maggi the best of luck and success, and the ability to graduate with the rest of us and John Santaniello my cell phone number when he turns 18.

I, Brandi Maloni, leave a shower in Lake George, a mariachi band, and a Sublime CD to Trisha and Krystal, a big hunk of beef and a pair of wireless headphones to Betsy, and an A in Spanish and name-calling in the hallway to Jordan B.

I, Robert Matrow, leave the responsibility of finding Peaked Mountain to David, Lauren, and Adam and the fate of MHS intramural bowling to Mike Nothe.

I, Josh Mayo, leave the responsibility and esteemed title of "head party boy dancer" at future school dances to Jake King. Additionally, I must entrust a certificate of membership in "the Randy Constan fan club" to Cheisea Siozak.

I, Jennifer McBride, leave late nights, good times, and strength to make it through to Tiffany & Julie, Ryan Bigos, and Russ Hatch.

I, Chris McCarthy, leave my love of music to Orrin Kanz.

I, Danielle McElhiney, leave the XC team the ability to finally beat Mohawk and Mrs. G. all the mints in the world.

I, Andrew Mesheau, score cards and my tie-dyed shirt to Laura V. and $3.00 to Ian M.

I, Jamie Messina, leave Amanda Kirkpatrick a buddy because I love her and Julie McBride good luck with all the B.S. (I love you).

I, Kyle Metcalf, leave Megan McNeill a bajillion dollars and Sam Strong a summer of memories, the key to my dorm, and my heart.

I, Margaret Michael, leave my little brother, Mark, the ability to shut his mouth and graduate high school, and Krystal Gemelli and Trisha Hubbard all of my love, our good times, and an amazing high school experience.

I, Jessica Morgan, leave free Jesscort rides to Kels and Chels and Ceramics and Literature class memories and laughs to Kourtney K.

I, Megan Nolan, leave my works to my mother.

I, Spike Nowak, leave many more hill woods runs to DuComb and Penny the ability to always reach the finish line before his sister.

I, Dan Ochs, leave the ability to dominate on the court and the field to Petrisis, McLeod, Ferry, and Walker and a date to Mrs. Shaw.

I, Mike Oppel, leave my reign as gym class hero to John Russell and Kyle Rodrigues our secret hand shake.

When I'm gone, I, Jordyn Peck, leave Kyle R., Liz S., Kayla T., Gianna A., and Brooke L. my spot on the mule and my best year of high school, Ethan P. the keys to the Camry, and Jamie C. my parking spot.

A TIME FOR CHANGE

OUR TIME HAS COME
AND THIS DAY IS BITTER SWEET.
WE ARE HONORING OUR SUCCESS
BUT WONDERING WHAT NEW CHALLENGES WE'RE ABOUT TO MEET.

WE DON'T KNOW WHAT IS AHEAD;
WE JUST KNOW WE HAVE TO GO,
BUT IF WE CAN EMBRACE THESE FOUR CONCEPTS
WE ARE SURE TO PROSPER AND GROW.

CHANGE
IT'S THE SCARIEST THOUGHT THAT COMES TO MIND
AS WE LOOK TOWARDS THE FUTURE
AND QUESTION WHAT WE'LL FIND.
ACCEPTING WHAT IS DIFFERENT,
IS WHAT IT WILL TAKE
TO PASS ON OUR KNOWLEDGE
AND LEARN FROM OUR MISTAKES

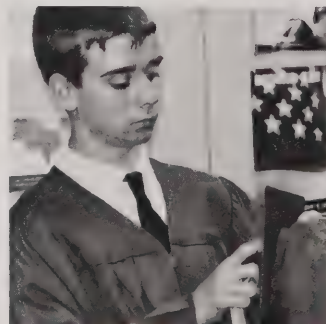

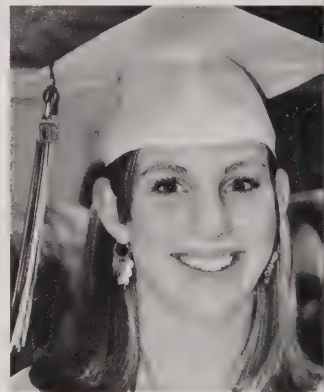

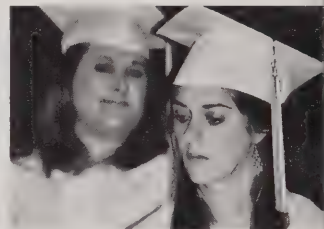

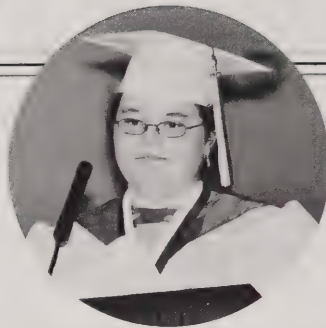

LIFE
WHEN LIFE IS OVER, IT'S DONE.
IT'S A SHORT AMOUNT OF TIME,
AND WE ONLY GET ONE.
FOR EACH OF US,
THERE IS A PLAN,
SO LIVE EVERY MOMENT YOU ARE GIVEN,
AS MUCH AS YOU POSSIBLY CAN.

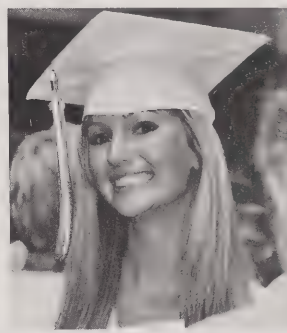

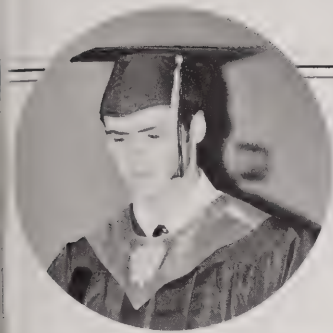

BELIEVE
YES, DREAMS ARE WHAT WE NEED,
BUT WE HAVE TO HAVE FAITH IN OURSELVES
BEFORE WE CAN SUCCEED.
IF WE DON'T THINK WE'RE GOOD ENOUGH,
OUR HOPES WILL BE HOLLOW.
IF WE HAVE CONFIDENCE WE CAN DO IT,
OTHER BELIEVERS WILL FOLLOW.

FAMILY
A GROUP OF PEOPLE, BIG OR SMALL
THAT SHOW THEY CARE,
AND KEEP US WALKING TALL.

SO CLASS, SOME OF US MAY STAY
AND SOME MAY GO SOMEWHERE FAR
HOWEVER, BE SURE TO KEEP IN TOUCH
BECAUSE A FAMILY IS WHAT WE ARE

WITH THIS SAID, WE ARE ALMOST ON OUR WAY
TO SEE WHAT'S OUT THERE
AND SEIZE EACH DAY
I HOPE THESE CONCEPTS ARE A HELPFUL MIX,
BECAUSE I WISH NOTHING BUT THE BEST FOR ALL OF US
GOOD LUCK, CLASS OF TWO THOUSAND AND SIX!
-MONICA FOWLER

American Hostage

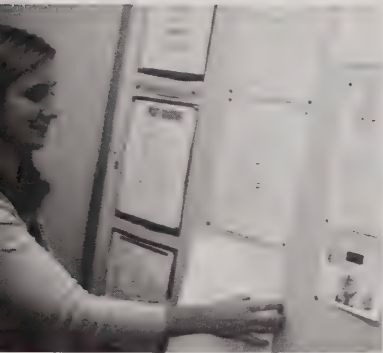

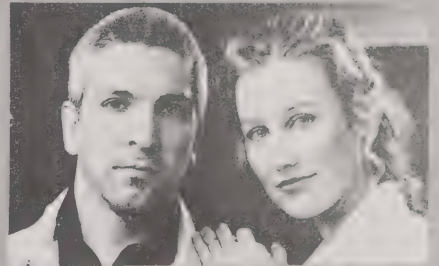

Photojournalists, filmmakers, and authors Micah Garen and Marie-Helene Carleton came to M.H.S. to lead photography students in a discussion of their book, American Hostage.

April 2006 was an exciting day for many MHS students. Over sixty photography, art, and other interested students had the opportunity to participate in a discussion with Micah Garen and Marie-Helene Carleton about their book American Hostage. In addition to the story of Micah's kidnapping and Marie-Helene's efforts to win his release, the discussion focused on issues in journalism, the looting of artifacts in Iraq, Iraqi culture and other points of relevant to the conflict in Iraq.

Students spent several weeks reading the book and preparing for the much anticipated visit by the photojournalists. To everyone's delight, Zeugma, the couple's dog and significant element in the story, came to MHS also!

Following the intriguing discussion, Marie-Helene and Micah stayed to talk with smaller groups of students, signed books, took pictures, and gathered student input. It was quite an exciting day, one many students said was a highlight of their year and an experience they will never forget.

Yearbook

As we entered our second year of yearbook, we faced many unexpected challenges. With a new computer program and a new staff it was difficult to get started. However, as time went on the new and old members came together as a team and we faced our new challenges with our heads held high. The book itself was a learning experience; We made mistakes, spent hours working and sometimes ended up nowhere. Luckily, our mistakes were always caught by our helpful yearbook advisor, Ms. Willis. She was our spell checker, our teacher, and our encourager. Good work to all on the Yearbook Staff, Mrs. Pisciotta and the Financial Committee. Congratulations on completing another successful yearbook!
